RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS

CAMPUS CHAPLAINS

Four chaplains serve the Rensselaer student body. The chaplains represent the following religious traditions on campus: Jewish, Protestant, Roman Catholic, and Muslim. Their offices are located in the Rensselaer Student Union, Room 3514. All chaplains hold office hours and can be reached via email or office staff. To contact the Chaplains Office, please call 518-276-6518.

- Catholic Chaplain
  - Rev. Edward S. Kacerguis
  - fred@rpi.edu

- Islamic Chaplain
  - Imam Djafer Sebkhaoui
  - Mosque: 518-274-0137

- Jewish Chaplain
  - Rabbi Robert Kasman
  - rabbikasman@aol.com

- Protestant Chaplain
  - Contact Chaplains Office

CHAPEL + CULTURAL CENTER

The Chapel+Cultural Center (C+CC) is located at 2125 Burdett Ave. The center hosts religious services, as well as non-denominational services and cultural activities for Rensselaer students and the greater community.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Student religious organizations on campus practice their faith and develop relationships with fellow believers. Each organization engages in group activities on and off campus throughout the year.

- CRU
- Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- Graduate Christian Fellowship
- Indian Christian Fellowship
- Knights of Columbus
- Korean Christian Fellowship
- Muslim Students Association
- Rensselaer Christian Association
- RPI Newman Catholic Fellowship
- RPI-Sage Hillel
- Chinese Christian Fellowship
- Indian Christian Fellowship
- Additional information: union.rpi.edu/religious

HOUSES OF WORSHIP

Troy and the surrounding Capital District is home to a wide range of houses of worship. Many students choose to go off campus to practice their faith. A list of houses of worship, provided by the campus chaplains, can be found at union.rpi.edu/houses-worship.